Studio Conduct

It is essential that pianos and the surrounding area are kept clean and free from anything that can cause damage. It is expected that all students to the studio will be respectful of the environment and not do anything that might cause damage to the pianos.

- There is no food, gum, candy, or beverages allowed in the studio or gallery.
- Guest are welcome but must remain seated and quiet at all times.
- No paint, glue, stickers, markers or crayons allowed anywhere near the pianos.
- Students hands must be clean before the start of their lesson.
- There is no running, jumping or horseplay anywhere in the gallery.
- Do not bang on any of the pianos, play with the lid, pedals or other parts.
- Do not touch anywhere inside of the piano.
- Report any problems to the owner immediately.
